

Library Research Consultation

What is a library research consultation?

A library research consultation is a private, one-on-one meeting with a librarian. Its purpose is to help you gain the information and skills you need to succeed with research assignments like term papers.

How will a library research consultation help me succeed with my assignments?

A library research consultation will help you learn to do the following:

- Find and use the best scholarly information
- Search the library catalog for books
- Choose and search appropriate online databases for journal articles and more
- Cite the sources you use in the proper style (APA, MLA, or other)

How do I request a library research consultation?

Print this page, fill out the form below, and return it to the Library's reference desk. Please be specific about your topic, since this will help us find the most relevant sources for you. A librarian will contact you via your CCC student email with the date and time of your consultation. If you have questions, please call 773-291-6354 (Library Reference Desk).
