

Swiss Star Screw Multi Axis Lathe Machine

Professional and Personal Development (PPD) Continuing Education Class
Learn how to operate and program some of the best CNC precision machines in the world!

The Swiss Training is an introductory hands on class. Acquire fundamental principles and operating skills of multi axis machining.

Class begins: Saturday, September 22, 2018
Class Ends: Saturday, November 17, 2018
Time: 9:00am-2:00pm
Location: 1645 N. California Ave
Chicago, IL 60649
Class Number: 37685
Tuition: $ 500.00 (WIOA Approved)

Contact Billy McFarland
CNC Coordinator at 773-481-8397
bmcfarland2@ccc.edu

or

Humboldt Park College Advisors

Barbara Krzewinska (773) 481-8198
bkrzewinska@ccc.edu

Rolando Villareal Sosa (773) 481-8199
rsosa19@ccc.edu

Prerequisite: Basic knowledge of CNC Technology

Swiss Star Screw Multi Axis Lathe Machine

- Programming: Structure, Speeds & Feeds
- Preparatory Functions, Tool functions, Machine Configurations
- Machine Operations: Safety, Panel Functions, Features, Tolerances
- Troubleshooting, Setting, Adjustment, Inspection and Maintenance

Manufacturing Technology
Wright College Humboldt Park | 773-481-8300 | www.ccc.edu/wchp