

2024-2025 Ability to Benefit Verification Form

Student's Name: _____

ID Number: _____

To receive Federal Student Aid (FSA) a student must be qualified to study at the postsecondary level. FSA applicants who have not graduated from high school or earned a GED are required to show an ability to benefit from college-level instruction. On your FAFSA, you answered the question of high school completion either blank or as "other." In order to receive Federal Student Aid, you must complete this form.

Please check the box that makes a true statement of your circumstances. Attach a copy of the documentation that supports the statement.

- I have a high school diploma (this can be from a foreign high school if it is equivalent to a U.S. high school diploma)
- I have the recognized equivalent of a high school diploma, such as a GED
- I completed homeschooling at the secondary level
- I have passed a Department of Education approved ATB test
- I have satisfactorily completed 6 credits of college work that are applicable to a degree or certificate offered by the school
- None of the above mentioned apply, but I have done the following:
