

Non-Discrimination Policy Statement

The Malcolm X College Surgical Technology program does not discriminate on the basis of race, national origin, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, citizenship, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, pregnancy, disability, military status, order of protection status, genetic information, political affiliation, membership or lawful participation in the activities of any organization, or the exercise of rights guaranteed by local, state, or federal law with respect admissions, enrollment or programmatic standing.

In the Surgical Technology program students and staff work together to prevent acts of discrimination and harassment of any kind. Students or staff found to have engaged in acts of discrimination or harassment will be reported and disciplined, which may include suspension or expulsion for students and termination for employees.
