Dear Harold Washington College Community,

The college has been preparing for next week's Virtual College Exploration Week, starting Monday, April 27 through Friday, May 1. This is a new and exciting City College's initiative in partnership with CPS and the Mayor's Office. We have so much to offer students and I am very excited to highlight who we are to prospective students and their families. I hope you can spread the word, or better yet, join!

My next virtual office hours are on Wednesday, April 29. As a reminder, my office hours are every Wednesday from 3:30-4:30 pm (enter Zoom here).

Here are the College Updates for this week:

- Join today's College-Wide Forum: Enrollment Opportunities (enter Zoom here), 1-3pm. This is the first of many discussions with the college community about the growth and sustainability of HWC.
- This summer, credit classes will continue to be offered remotely. Click here to see a list of course offerings.
- As a reminder, to access student services online click here. You can see a list of Virtual Student Services Frequently Asked Questions here.
- Interviews for new IT Director took place this week and we hope to decide on a candidate to present the board next week.
- Virtual College Exploration Week (April 27-May 1): If you know a CPS student, parent, or counselor, or other community member who might want to learn more about City Colleges and the college planning process, please share this opportunity with them and ask them to visit www.ccc.edu/virtualweek.
- Join in! A Virtual Release Party for the 2020 Issue of the Garland Court Review, HWC's Art & Literary Journal. April 30th at 2pm via Zoom! (Password: 093291). The event will featuring readings, visual art, and music!

Feedback Wanted! Please share your online learning and student service experiences with us here. We would like to know what the college is doing well during this time as well as what areas could be improved. Your feedback is valuable to us.
