Subject: College Updates: March 30 - April 3, 2020
Date: Friday, April 3, 2020 4:20:08 PM

Dear Harold Washington College Community,

As we head into spring break, my hope is that all of you get to relax, unplug and enjoy the week off as much as possible. I wish our situation were different, but I believe that this crisis is temporary and that when this is all over, we will be stronger and more resilient than ever before. I look forward to connecting with all of you after the break.

My virtual office hours will resume on Wednesday, April 15. As a reminder, my office hours are every Wednesday from 3:30-4:30pm (enter Zoom here).

Here are the College Updates for this week:

- Spring break starts Monday, April 6 through Sunday, April 12. Classes resume the week of April 13.
- The college building will be closed through the end of April.
- Due to the ongoing COVID-19 situation, Summer and Fall semester credit registration will open on Wednesday, April 15. Students who qualify for priority registration can enroll beginning on Monday, April 13.
- A recording of today's HWC Community Forum is available here.
- City Colleges will hold a virtual Commencement celebration in early summer.
- If any faculty or staff is in need of support with technology, need a laptop or internet access, you can still reach out to Benjamin Kent, IT Director, at bkent1@ccc.edu. Reminder: access to the building is not allowed.
- Collective Care Fridays continue every Friday at 3:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. (optional DJ segment from 2:30-3:00). Join via zoom.
- Feedback Wanted! Please share your online learning and student service experiences with us here. We would like to know what the college is doing well during this time as well as what areas could be improved. Your feedback is valuable to us.
